

Financing Referral Service

Enhancing businesses with LG display technology through budget-friendly, flexible leasing or purchase financing options.

Experience the brilliance of LG advanced display technology—now easier to access than ever. With help from the Financing Referral Service, you can upgrade your space with stunning digital displays without the upfront cost. Whether you're enhancing a retail environment, transforming a workspace, or creating unforgettable customer experiences, flexible financing or lease options make it simple and affordable.

Flexible Financing Options: Choose between CapEx (purchase) or OpEx (lease) options* from a variety of financial institutions for budget-friendly solutions tailored to your preferences with a predictable monthly payment.

Maintain Advance Display Technology: Upgrade to the latest display tech at lease-end, avoiding outdated equipment and staying ahead with cutting-edge visuals.

Streamlined Collaboration: LG, resellers, and financial institutions work together to streamline proposals and project execution—so your display solution gets up and running fast.

Comprehensive Support: Enjoy peace of mind with reliable performance and support—LG's extended warranty and ConnectedCare services are included throughout the lease or financing term.

Customized Lease-End Options: At the end of any lease term, you can work with the financial institution to buy out equipment, refresh with new technology, or extend the lease, offering flexibility to adapt to future needs.
